Specimen AS and A-level Commerce

3 Subject content

3.1 Markets and customers

3.1.1 Understanding markets

| Content | Additional information |
|---|---|
| Explain the understanding markets idea number 1 and its effect on organisations | Learners should consider examples 1 from real firms. |
| Describe the understanding markets idea number 2 and its effect on organisations, including the reasons why managers and other stakeholders might respond in different ways over time | |
| Analyse the understanding markets idea number 3 and its effect on organisations | Learners should consider examples 3 from real firms. |
| Evaluate the understanding markets idea number 4 and its effect on organisations | |
| Identify the understanding markets idea number 5 and its effect on organisations, including the reasons why managers and other stakeholders might respond in different ways over time | Learners should consider examples 5 from real firms. |

3.1.2 Customer needs

| Content | Additional information |
|---|---|
| Explain the customer needs idea number 1 and its effect on organisations | Learners should consider examples 1 from real firms. |
| Describe the customer needs idea number 2 and its effect on organisations, including the reasons why managers and other stakeholders might respond in different ways over time | |
| Analyse the customer needs idea number 3 and its effect on organisations | Learners should consider examples 3 from real firms. |
| Evaluate the customer needs idea number 4 and its effect on organisations | |
| Identify the customer needs idea number 5 and its effect on organisations, including the reasons why managers and other stakeholders might respond in different ways over time | Learners should consider examples 5 from real firms. |
| Calculate the customer needs idea number 6 and its effect on organisations | |
| Discuss the customer needs idea number 7 and its effect on organisations | Learners should consider examples 7 from real firms. |
| Compare the customer needs idea number 8 and its effect on organisations, including the reasons why managers and other stakeholders might respond in different ways over time | |

3.2 People at work

3.2.1 Leading people

| Content | Additional information |
|---|---|
| Explain the leading people idea number 1 and its effect on organisations | Learners should consider examples 1 from real firms. |
| Describe the leading people idea number 2 and its effect on organisations, including the reasons why managers and other stakeholders might respond in different ways over time | |
| Analyse the leading people idea number 3 and its effect on organisations | Learners should consider examples 3 from real firms. |
| Evaluate the leading people idea number 4 and its effect on organisations | |
| Identify the leading people idea number 5 and its effect on organisations, including the reasons why managers and other stakeholders might respond in different ways over time | Learners should consider examples 5 from real firms. |
| Calculate the leading people idea number 6 and its effect on organisations | |

3.2.2 Rewarding staff

| Content | Additional information |
|---|---|
| Explain the rewarding staff idea number 1 and its effect on organisations | Learners should consider examples 1 from real firms. |
| Describe the rewarding staff idea number 2 and its effect on organisations, including the reasons why managers and other stakeholders might respond in different ways over time | |
| Analyse the rewarding staff idea number 3 and its effect on organisations | Learners should consider examples 3 from real firms. |
| Evaluate the rewarding staff idea number 4 and its effect on organisations | |

3.2.3 Team working

| Content | Additional information |
|---|---|
| Explain the team working idea number 1 and its effect on organisations | Learners should consider examples 1 from real firms. |
| Describe the team working idea number 2 and its effect on organisations, including the reasons why managers and other stakeholders might respond in different ways over time | |
| Analyse the team working idea number 3 and its effect on organisations | Learners should consider examples 3 from real firms. |
| Evaluate the team working idea number 4 and its effect on organisations | |

| Content | Additional information |
| --- | --- |
| Identify the team working idea number 5 and its effect on organisations, including the reasons why managers and other stakeholders might respond in different ways over time | Learners should consider examples 5 from real firms. |
| Calculate the team working idea number 6 and its effect on organisations | |
| Discuss the team working idea number 7 and its effect on organisations | Learners should consider examples 7 from real firms. |